vicisitudes until we have arrived at the station we occupy now, what does the call for reform signify with us here?
Reform indeed! What shall we reform?
Could those young men and ladies who are present here tell me what religious principles have been formed in their hearts that they require reformation? I am for progress with my whole heart, but "reform" I know not what it means with the greatest majority of our denomination in this land. And if it means anything it is nothing else but a mock-word to those who actually have acquired religious sentiments and principles, and follow them with simplicity of heart and devotion of mind.

There for instance, is a gray headed man in our midst who has been Reform indeed! What shall we reform? Could those young men and ladies who are present here tell me what religious principles have been formed in their hearts that they require reformed in the means with the greatest majority of our denomination. Having worked his way back to Jerusalem, the wise king arrived there in a very bad condition. He walked through the streets crying, "I am Solomon who was the King of Israel in Jerusalem, "but nobody would believe ham in our midst who has been taught to practice the religious rites of our denomination. Following this practice since his childhood, he lays Tephalin every day, wears his Zeizh, observes his Sabbath rigidly, and so forth, and so forth, and so softh. Next to him sits a young man who scorns the idea of performing such ceremonies. The old man is orthood, and his neighbor calls himself reformed.

In view of the gigantic efforts that a far-away northern city is putting forth to celebrate a later event in American history, we think that Georgia and all the southern states should aid in every possible way a patriotic celebration of the declaration that belongs more particularly to us. It is in every sense our centernial; and we hope Allazia will join Charlotte in her hero'c effort to properly celebrate the hundreth anniversary of the day that first declared foreign rule at an end in America.

Trial of Policeman Mays.

Election of Police Force on Wed-nesday, 31st. stoners met at their court-room, being convened for the trial of policeman W. Mays. There were present Messrs. Dodd, Mahoney, Morris and Carke.

This being to business of the evening, the case was called, and the winnesses for the city placed apon the stand. Policeman Mays was represented by Mr. Goodwin. There was no other attorney in the case, and the witnesses es-quite a number of them—were put the meh sheedily.

was in substance as follows, the charge being neglect of duty: On Friday night last, a dilliculty occurred near Brooklyn, in a house adjoining the residence of Policeman Mays, in which that effice was at the time. The house was about fifteen feet from that of Mays, Mays was not on duty at the time. Ars. Mays stated to a number before the difficulty that Mr. Mays was sick and asleep and that she had given him morphine. There was the usual noise at a party where there is a crowd and date ing, and the report of the small pictol was like that of a fire tracker. That when the firing occurred, the ladies scattered sereaming, some going May's house. One witness started for Mays, but was stopped by his wife, who er discussion, was taken. Messrs. Dodd, Morris, C arke voted "not guilty." Mr. Ma-noney voted "guilty." The former thought the evidence before them showed that Mr. Mays was sick and askep and knew nothing ver. Mr. Mahoney thought there was only over. Mr. Mahoney thought there was only hearsay evidence that he was sick, and the noise created would seem to have been great enough to have waked hin. He failed to state that there being thirty feet from the factory. He said it was sixty feet off. He failed to state that there was a gin house next the Picker house, when he was called on to state all the buildings within 100 feet of the mill. The gin house added to the tisk. He failed to state that there was a covered way connecting the two mills. These companies would not have insured the mill upon these terms if these houses had been known to be there. The fire was driven down through that covered way and true set fire to the picker house.

These misrepresentations of these facts in a warranty application and policy precidudes a recovery.

Thompson stated in his applications there was only one stove in the factory. The proof shows there were three. Thompson stated that the pipe entered the chimney in the same room where the stove stood, and in all bis applications. The proof shows this to be ustrue.

THE CAN CAN,

It was meany midnight on Wednesday night when a sheriff and a detective went to the Lindell hotel, St. Louis, and asked to be conducted to the room of W. B. Hill. Their request was complied with, and in response to their knock Mr. W. B. Hill appeared. They told him he was "wanted," which he seemed not slow to appreciate, and he was compelled to forsake the beautiful little woman who, the register said, was his wife, and exchange his luxurious quarters for a cold and ceeerless cell Convinced that the game was ur, he told his story.

he determined to find a way out of his dilemma through two 'crimes. Three weeks ago, A. K. Seago, a large wholesale grocer at Atlants, telegraphed to the firm of W: S. Beil & Co. instructing them to ship several carloads of corn, and telling them to draw for the amount as soon as the corn was shipped. The order was executed, and as soon as the corn was seat, Beil drew upon Seago for $500 more than the value of the shipment. He got the draft cashed at the Bank of Chaltanooga, where he did his be banking business, and the same night he LEFT HIS HOME, HIS WIFF AND CHILD, and started nor hward in company with Miss Bently. The bank received intelligence of the fraud a day or two afterward, and by some means learned that the runaway couple had gone to Cairo. The sherif there was telegraphed to arrest them, and proceeding to the St. Charles hotel, he found that they had been stopping there, but had just lett for St. Louis. EASTER EGG PARTY.

Yesterday evening a joyous throng of children assembled at the orphan's school, corner of Walton and Forsyth streets, to part'cipate in the fun of hunting for the golden legg. There was quite a gathering of lathers and mothers there likewise. Hundreds of dainty little nests were filled with the Easter eggs of variegated hues and colors. Such an aggregation of beautiful designs on egg-shells was hardly ever seen before. The children were radiant with the pleasurable emotions of the hour, while Professor Courtney seemed as young as the youngest. Aze for his Attentions to a Mulatto Girl. Particulars of the Tragedy, Escape, Pursuit of the Murderer,

West End was thrown ing a most panner state of excitement yesterday morning by as fiendish and brutal a murder as it has ever become our duty to chronicle. The crime, like too many others of the same bloody type, has a woman at the bottom of it, and is the result of disappointed love and

THE PLACE OF THE MURDER.

The murder occurred upon the lot of Judge J. D. Cunningham, at West End. This lot is large, containing above ten acres. On the front of the lot stands Judge Cunningham's residence. The rear of the lot borders a large fish pond owned by the family. Near this loud are creeted two negro cottages, one is occupied by servants employed in Judge Cunningham's household. The other is rented out to negroes. The object of placing these cottages where they stand is to have the occupants guard the pond at night and keep off trespassers. It was at the second cottage that the muder was committed, and it is at least three hundred and fifty yards from the residence of the judge.

BLOOD AND BRAINS WERE FORCED OUT THROUGH THE EARS.

For fifteen feet around the ground was literally covered with blood. Besides the blows on the head, the body had a gaping wound in the throat through the left tonsil. This could not have been inflicted with an axe, and impels the suspicton that Orange, not content with his bloody work, had gone back to the body, after he left his axe in the lane, and PLUNGED HIS BAYONET INTO HIS THROAT. This too accounts for the great flow of This tob accounts for the great low of blood.

Yest rday morning at an early hour the marshal and mayor of West End saw the body, and instant measures were taken for the capture of the murderer. Capt. Anderson also sent a posse of police from the city to assist in the search. Besides these a squaft of necroes armed with guns recoured the country. The murderer was reported seen making his way towards the river, but has not been captured to this time.

THE INQUEST.

During the morning Coroner Kile i rpanneled a jury and held an inquest on the body.

DR. ROACH MADE THE POST MORTEM EX-

AMINATION.

The inquest was brief and resulted in a Alfred Orange is the son of Orange Dennis, is a medium-sized black negro, well-hs 165 pounds, is five and a half feet high, wears unoustache, has a very prominent forehead, and is rather good looking, has a bad expression about his eyes. When he went off he had on a pair of federal blue pants, blue frock coat, and hlack cape. His father lives within two miles of Greensboro, on the place of Green Moore, Esq. Alfred worked two years in Covington, working a portion of the time with Mr. Clarke-Pertyman. Also staid a while at Cave spring, near Rome. He also worked a short time on the place of Judge G. D. Cunningham, near Griffin, Ga.

It is row more than probable that Orange is making his way to one or the fother of these places. We hope the anthorhies will be on the alert, for a more brutal murder never was perpetrated, and the blood of his victim even now calls for vengrance.

THE GIRL AND HER LOVERS.

This house is occupied by Patsey Yancey, her father and mother, and a young black man, named Alfred Ocange. This girl Patsey hancey is the heroine of the blood tragedy. She is a young mulatto girl, about is years of age and is employed in the family of Mr. B. H. Broomhead. She is not especially pretty, nor even attractive in her manners, yet she was able to provoke such a passion in the heart of at least one man, that it has found its v. nt in murder. So far as we could learn, Patsey bears a good character. Altred Orange, the murdererer, had been in the employ of Judge Cunningham at his plantation last year, and at his house a short time this year. At the time of the killing, he was in the employ of Mr. Broomhead. He was looked upon sas vindicive dangerous negro. The murdered man is named Joe Mayñ. Id. He is a dark colored mulatto, about twenty-one years of age. He lives at West End, and was employed about in the community. He is said to have borne a pretty good character. Both Mayfield and Orange fell in love with the girl Patsey. It would appear that as Orange had a room in the same house with the object of his affections he possessed an advantace over his rival, but it was not so. Mayfield was untiring in his efforts to please, and after remaining impartial for a long time, the girl at length inclined to her own color, and waye the preference to Mayfield. special:

This is not what is termed "Acid Phosphate," but like the regular "PATAPSCO" a "COMPLEX ARTICLE," and differing from it only in the relative quantities of its constituents—it being designed mainly for use in compressing with Cotton Seed. It has less ammonia than "Patapsco," but is fully its equal in every other respect, therefore, when used in that way upon exhausted and other soils deficient in organic matter, it will make a maximium crop even on such lands.

For used on soils having present vegetable matter, it can be applied without seed. It is best to bring the iertilizer near the surface, so the young plant may receive benefit and its properties distributed for later wants of the crop.

AUGUSTA, GA., January 27, 1875. Geo. W. Grafflin, Esq., Treasurer Patapsco Guano Company:

Dear Sir.—My evidence before the committee was decided in character. Since 1868 I have each year been seiling it and in every sirgle instance but one it has given satisfaction. The party referred to I afterwards found had intentionally done it injustice. You can use this as you deem best. Yours truly,

Patapseo Guano Company, Bailimore:

GENTS—I take pleasure in certifying that my firm received in September, 1873, 58 barrels of "Patapseo" Guano, direct from the Company, and sold 54 of same to 18 farmers planting in this and Butts county. Every man has paid, no complaints made, and a majority stated that they had never used an article that paid them better. The above was all that came in barrels. The other shipments came in bargs, and all sold by me has given general satisfaction, and is regarded by planters as a good and reliable fertilizer. I have been over twelve years in the guano trade, and have never so d one that has given more general satisfaction. Respectfully,

Mr. G. W. Graffling, Treasurer Patapaco Guano Company: DEAR SIR—It gives us pleasure to state that we have sold your Patapseo Guano, for past three years, to our customers, with entire satisfaction to them and ourselves. We sell from 200 to 3.0 tons a season. We have no complaint of any failing off in quality of that sold fast season. All who use it were well satisfied. Your truly, will have used to the well satisfied. Your truly, SAVANNAH, GA., January 21st, 1875. This is to certify that I have sold the Patapasco Guano to the planters of Georgia for the past two years, and that it hast given entire satisfaction to all my customers, with the exception of a few irresponsible parties who would not pay any just debt.

D. B. HULL. Sworn to and subscribed before me, this 21st day of January, 1875.

SAVANNAH, January 20th, 1875. This is to certify that I have sold the Patapsco Guano for two years and that I have given general satisfaction to those who purchased it. I believe it to be the best Commercial Manure now offered for sale. Respectfully, DWIGHT L. ROBERTS. Sworn to and subscribed before me; this 21st day of January, 1875.

A. L. REES, Notary Public C. C. Ga. SAVANNAH, GA., January 21st, 1875.

This will certify that from February, 1869, to March, 1874, I hav had not less than 12 full commercial analyses made in my Laboratory of the Patapaco Guano. It has always met my endorsement, based upon quality and quality of its nutrient elements. It has varied like most manures, somewhat in proportion of its elements, but has never fallen below the standard. Since January, 1875, and up to March 16, 1875, it has, by tetting, four different analysis within that time, averaged in my hands, Ammoaia 2.89 pet cent., Soluble Phosphoric and Precipitate do., availab first year, 11.20 per cent., together with the average of 8 per cent. of common or insoluble Phosphoric Acid, which, by undergoing chemical reaction underground, during the succeeding fall winter season, prepare the soil for a better yield the succeeding year, The last analysis made March 16th, 1874, was of a high order. Another cargo for this season is now on the way here but has not yet arrived—designed for this season. On the whole I cannot but rank it has a first-class fertilizer.

ATLANTA, GA., January 20th, 1875. Messrs. Adair & Bros., Agents. Atlanta, Georgia, GENTLEMEN—The car load (8 tous) of Patapaco Guano that I purchased from you last season, gave entire satisfaction. I used it upon cotton, and am satisfied that the investment paid me handsomely. I can safely say that it is a fertilizer of high grade.

Yours, respectfully,

A. J. ORME. Yours, respectfully,
